WASHINGTON, Oct. 14, 1869.

THE CASE OF THE HORNET.

The gunboat Frolic arrived at Wilmington on Monday, and the commander notified Commodore Higgins, of the Hornet, not to leave port until his case had been decided. He said he had instructions from the President to prevent his departure.

The case of the Hornet came up before Commissioner Rutherford on Monday and Commodore Higgins made affidavit that the ship was purchased by the Cuban Republic outside the jurisdiction of the United States, and that later she had cleared from a British port. The counsel for the Government asked for a delay until Saturday, which was granted.

Writ of Injunction Served on the Return Judges—Mistaken Resistance—Associated Press Reporter Badly Beaten and Locked up.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, October 14.—During the session of the Return Judges this morning, a writ of injunction was attempted to be served by a Sheriff's officer to prevent the counting of the votes. The officer was resisted, his official position not being announced, and he was ejected from the room. He had obtained admission under pretence of being a Return Judge. He came back with a posse, followed by a mob, and broke open the doors, served the writ, and then ordered the arrest of sundry persons in the room, whom he charged with resisting him. One of the reporters of the Associated Press, Mr. Corbitt, was dragged from the President's desk, where he had been a quiet witness of the affair, and beaten in a shocking manner by the police, and locked up. He was discharged in a few minutes, and demanded a hearing, which was refused, there being no one to make a charge.

J. Alexander Simpson, President of the Board of Return Judges, on leaving that body to night, was assaulted by roughs on Chestnut street and beaten in a shocking manner. It is said his life is despaired of. Mr. Simpson is a prominent Republican leader here.

VIRGINIA.

Obnoxious Military Order Suspended—Fusion of Walker Republicans and Wells Radicals Proposed.

RICHMOND, October 13.—General Canby, it is said, intends to modify his order, postponing the appointment of railroad proxies and directors in Virginia, which was very obnoxious to Governor Walker and the Conservatives. It it is further said that a committee of Conservatives waited upon General Sherman and requested him to direct General Canby to change the order, and General Sherman agreed to do so.

A fusion of the Walker Republicans and the Wells Radicals in the Virginia Legislature is contemplated in order to secure the election of Senators against the Conservatives. Lieutenant Governor Lewis and Franklin Sterns are the choice of the proposed coalition.

—Capt. George Wentworth, whose arrest for rape on the high seas, which was noticed a few days ago, at Bangor, Me., had a hearing before United States Commissioner Carr yesterday, which resulted in fully committing him for trial before the United State District Court in April next. The penalty being death, the offence is not bailable.

LOUISVILLE.

Southern Commercial Convention—Third Day's Proceedings—Reports of Committees—The Grand Demonstration—Synod of Kentucky.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, October 14.—The members of the Convention were tardy today, and many failed to reach the Opera House during the session, which began at 12:30. There was barely a quorum present when President Filmore called the meeting to order, but a good many came in before the adjournment.

James W. Measley, of Virginia, Chairman of the Committee on Immigration, submitted a report which was adopted, after some discussion. The following is a synopsis of the report: The report was prepared to be presented to the Louisville Convention by the Committee on Immigration, raised by the Memphis Convention of May, 1869.

The report says that the population of the whole country was, according to the first census in 1790, very nearly equally divided between the North and South. According to the census of 1860, the population of the two sections was: North 19,369,182, South 12,048,149. This shows that of the emigrants and their descendants, who had come into the country during the seventy years, from 1790 to 1860, and were then living, 7,321,033 more had settled in the North than had settled in the South.

According to estimates made, every foreign immigrant who settles in the country adds $1,500 to the national wealth. But to be clearly within the limits, your Committee will assume it to be $500 per head. The industrial capital of the North over and above the South, from immigration alone, has thus been increased by this enormous sum. The North has outstripped the South in the struggle for mineral wealth.

The object of your committee is to devise means which may enable the South to participate in the advantages of immigration. Most if not all the Southern States, since the war, have adopted measures for the encouragement of foreign immigration. These measures have not been attended with much success. The sympathizing class of Europe is wholly uninformed in regard to the Southern States, and is rom ignorance, and in some sort, misinformation, greatly prejudiced against them. This ignorance must be dispelled. These perjudices against the Southern States apply with equal force to all. This obstacle should be removed. An impression prevails that the climate of the South is unsuited to the white man. Europe has heard of the paralell of thirty-six degrees thirty minutes as a dividing line between black and white labor in America, Spain, Italy, Barbary, Egypt and Asia Minor, which lie to the south of this line, and are within the same parallels of latitude which include the southern States; are inhabited by races having tanned or black skins. From this it is inferred that the climate of the southern States is unsuited to the Teutons.

So long as these hurtful prejudices exist, the emigrating stream of Germans, Swedes and Norwegians, Britous and Danes, will never flow into the Southern States. The removal of these prejudices can be best accomplished by united effort. The plan contemplates State organizations.

In the grand demonstration this morning there were hundreds of vehicles in line, representing the various manufacturing and mercantile interests of the cities around the Falls of the Ohio, many of them elaborately and tastefully ornamented. The procession is estimated to have been seven miles in length and three hours and a quarter passing a given point. It was unquestionably the grandest affair of the kind ever gotten up in the West.

During the afternoon session lengthy reports were made by the Committee on the Encouragement of Immigration; Committee on Finance and Banking, and the Committee on Mississippi Levees. Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, also presented a very elaborate report memorializing Congress to improve the navigation of the Tennessee River, which was adopted without a dissenting voice. At three o'clock the Convention adjourned until to-morrow. The business of the Convention to morrow will be immense.

The Synod of Kentucky, representing the Assembly party, commenced its annual session at 7½ o'clock last evening, in the Walnut street Courch. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. Thos. N. Clemand, of Lebanon. Rev. Dickenson, of Bowling Green, was elected Moderator, and Rev. Mr. Hendricks Temporary Clerk. Delegates from all the Presbyteries in the State are in attendance. The session will probably last till Monday last.

President Grant at Frederick—Hearty Reception by the People—His Speech—General Hand Shaking.

FREDERICK, MD., October 14.—Large crowds received the President. Col. W. P. Manby warmly welcomed him in a speech, and expressed the thanks of the multitude for his presence on this occasion. The President replied: I have great pleasure in visiting, for the first time, the city of Frederick, of which I heard so much during the period of the late rebellion, and which stood up manfully for the maintainance of a whole Union. I expected to visit this city some years ago, but found myself unable to do so; but now that I have found so many friends, and been so gratified with what I have seen of your fair, and enjoyed of your hospitality, I hope at some future time to visit you again.

Three cheers for the President of the United States were heartily given, when the President repaired to the Committee room and received the multitude, shaking hands as they severally passed before him.

The Late Rain Storm—Damage to Railroads &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, October 14.—A dispatch from Schenectady says: All the aqueducts have been repaired, but the rain, which is still falling, has increased the damages at Culverts. It will be impossible to resume navigation by the 16th inst. The water is still rising in the Mohawk. There has been a land slide on the Boston road, carrying two hundred feet of road bed away at Shodack. The delay to passengers, however, is slight. Other roads also suffered a slight detention, but are now all right.

SPAIN.

MADRID, October 14.—Valencia still holds out against the troops. An official dispatch from that quarter, received today, states that the insurgents have proposed to capitulate, but the authorities demand unconditional submission.

The town of Bejar, forty-five miles south of Salamanco, has revolted, and the inhabitants are flying from the place. A detachment of troops has been sent there to restore order.

Six thousand rebels have submitted to the government officers in Tarragona, Barcelona and vicinity,

The republican leaders, Paul and Salvochea, abandoned by their followers, have fled to Gibraltar. It is stated that the latter after leaving Sarragossa, was defeated while retiring through Audalusia. Seventy of his men were killed and the remainder dispersed.

A number of Republican journals published in the Provinces have been suppressed by the local authorities for inciting insurrection.

The deputies to the Cortes composing the Republican minority, have absented themselves from the Chamber, and many of them are supposed to be concealed in the city or vicinity. There is a rumor that the Governments intends to arrest them under authority of the late act suspending individual right.

The committee appointed by the Cortes to inquire into the conduct of the republican deputies in the present insurrec have reported. They recommend that a vote of censure be passed against the republican minority for leaving their seats in the House, and that legal proceedings be commenced against those deputies who have taken an active part in the rebellion.

The Cortes has passed a vote of thanks to the defenders of Los Tunas in Cuba.

The deputies from Porto Rico have appeared in the Cortes. One of their first acts was to present a demand for colonial liberties and reforms. This gave rise to an interesting debate. Deputy Arbisa alluded to the unswerving fidelity of the of the colony o Porto Rico, and declared that its union through love with Spain, would be greatly strengthened by the conferring of the liberties asked. General Prim praised the heroism of the defenders of the mother country in the Antilles. He said the Government was disposed to employ every means to promote the interests of the colony of Porto Rico. Deputy Vallen claimed for Cuba all the liberties she ought to have as soon as the rebellion should be quelled.

The Epoca to-day publishes a synopsis of the reply made by Minister Sylvela to the note of Gen. Sickles. Senor Sylvela says: Reasons, dictated by national dignity, prevent the acceptance of foreign mediation in a domestic affair. The intimations made by Gen. Sickles are received with the good will which one nation owes to another with which it is bound by ties of amity. It is presumed that the American Government only desires to strip the struggle in Cuba of its sanguinary character. The Washington cabinet is urged to impede the departure of supplies for the insurgents who prevent the Spanish Government from carrying out a policy in Cuba in harmony with that at home.

Senor Silvela maintains that the insurgents of Cuba are in the minority and by no means belong to the wealthiest and most influential classes, as has been so constantly represented.

The Epoca makes mention of condolence between Senator Silvela and Gen. Sickles, in which the former urged the release of the Spanish gunboats building in the United States, protesting that they were only to be used to protect the shores of Cuba against expeditions in aid of the insurgents form foreign countries.

FRANCE.

PARIS, October 14.—The meeting of Deputies of the Left, called by M. Jules Simon, took place last night. Only seven members were present at the meeting.

The ministers have gone to Compeigne to attend a council summoned by the Emperor.

The Siecle to-day has a general review of the policy of Europe. France, the article says, continues to guard the temporal power of the Pope contrary to agreement, and mounts guard around the Council, in which Jesuits propose again to outrage modern society. No explanations are offered.

Equal ignorance is suffered to exist as to what counsels have been given to the present rulers of Spain. But we know the suspension of constitutional liberty in that country coincides with General Prim's return from Paris.

The Siecle asks the reasons for the appointment of Gen. Fleury, as Embassador to St. Petersburg, and continues: The moment has arrived when France wishes to know something about her foreign as well as her home policy—to know the ends to be pursued—whether Peace or War.

At this crisis the adjournment of the corps legislatif was an act of supreme impolicy. On these and other questions clear and precise explanations are required, which the government alone can give, since its foreign policy is still directed by the unhappy traditions of diplomatic mystery and State secrets.

SOUTH AMERICA.

MAZATLAN, October 4.—Everything indicates that a revolution in Sinaloa is imminent. Troops are stationed on the Southern frontier. The Government is buying up and manufacturing ammunition. Desertions from the army are very numerous. On the night of September 24th, several soldiers deserted from the barracks. During the confusion which ensued there were cries of viva Don Placido Vega throughout the city detachment of several hundred cavalry, belonging to Lazado. On the southern frontier there was considerable alarm.

The fifty-ninth anniversary of Mexican independence was celebrated enthusiastically. Four men were accidentally killed while firing a salute. The anniversary of the independence of Chili was also observed.

LONDON, October 14.—Advices from Buenos Ayres to September 9th state that President Lopez had not left his country, but was at San Estauslaus with 2,000 men and 20 cannon.

INDIA.

BOMBAY, Oct. 11, via London Oct. 14.—Mr. Berkin, in a despatch to the Government here, says a caravan has arrived at Zanzebar. It brings the welcome news that Dr. Livingstone had arrived at Niyi alive and well. He was on the way to the coast, the road to which was open and safe.

Another caravan is expected here which will bring later information of the Doctor's progress.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, October 14.—The Congressional Committee on the Causes of the Decline in American Commerce, held its first meeting to-day in the Custom House. A committee from the New York Ship Owners' Association was in attendance. The Maine ship builders' interest was represented by Messrs. Hayden and Hichborn. On the part of the New York Ship Owners' Association, statements and arguments were submitted to prove that the remedy for the low condition of Amerian shipping interests is in the repeal of the navigation laws, and in permitting American ship owners to buy ships in England, or any other foreign country, which they are now prevented from doing by the prohibition of American registry to foreign built vessels. That the amendment of the Internal Revenue so as to allow ship stores to be obtained free of duty, as in Great Britain, would enable American ship owners to compete in the carrying trade with foreign vessels. They advocated, incidentally, the allowance of drawbacks to American ship builders in materials used in ships, and argued that thus in a few years American shipbuilders would be able to produce either iron or wooden vessels as cheaply as they can now be produced on the Tyne or Clyde, while free trade in ships would give immediate relief to American ship owners, and prevent the monopoly of the carrying trade by foreigners.

On the part of the Maine ship building interests the argument was that the only remedy needed was the allowance of drawbacks, and that to agree to the proposition of the New York ship owners Association, for free trade in ships would be the finishing blow to the ship building interests of the country. The Committee meets again to-day (Friday).

Many eminent gentlemen connected with the shipping interests of the country will appear before the Congressional Committee to-morrow. The deliberation of the Committee will extend over a month, and a report, embodying the results of the investigations, will be presented to Congress early in December. The committee will probably recommend a repeal of the law forbidding the transfer of a vessel placed under foreign flags during the war by American ship owners, and the re-enactment of the law rendering it necessary that vessels bearing the American flag should have at least three fourths of their crew American citizens.

The House of Bishops of the Protestant Espiscopal Church this afternoon elected Rev. Henry Niles Pierce, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Arkansas and Indian territory.

New and Splendid Stock.

Our attention having been arrested by a huge pile of piano and organ boxes in front of Mellor & Hoene's Music Store on Fifth avenue, we dropped in to see what was the matter. We found they were just receiving one of the installments of their fall stock, selected personally by Mr. Mellor during his recent visit to the East, and consisting of as fine a lot of pianos and organs as were ever brought to this city. Some of the pianos are sumptuous enough for the palace of a prince, being elegantly decorated with elaborate carvings, &c., while others are of a neat but plain finish, although possessing the same excellence and durability of work in the interior, and the same beauty of tone and touch. We advise piano and organ buyers to visit Mellon & Hoene's warerooms without delay, so as to get a first choice at this fine assortment. Remember the place, No. 53 Fifth avenue, next door below Masonic Hall.

Corrections.—Alderman Strain, of the Third ward, received 209 instead of 9 votes, as reported in Yesterday's Gazette. J. E. McKelvy, Esq., of the Twelfth ward, for Common Council, ran 404 votes, which was much above his ticket, securing his election, being the only Republican returned from that ward.

A DECREE published in the Madrid Gazette fixes the strength of the navy of Spain during the coming year. The fleet will consist of several iron clad frigates, averaging about 23 guns and 840 horse power; five large wooden screw frigates, of 20 guns and 420 horse power each, and nine smaller ones, each carrying from two to three guns; eight paddle wheel steamers, with various armaments, ranging from 14 guns to 2, and one sailing corvette of 700 tons. In addition to this force, three transports, two screw steamers and one sailing vessel are provided for, together with one screw and one sailing frigate for purposes of instruction. For the protection of the coast of the Peninsula, three paddle wheel steamers of 2 guns each, one falucho of 12 guns, with 72 escampavias, and a few smaller boats are estimated for. The whole of these vessels are in existence, except one iron clad frigate, which is in course of construction.

An Undesirable Landlord.

Yesterday Matthew Anerberger made information before Alderman Mullen charging John McKeown with assault and battery. A similar information was made against the same party by Barbara Lang. It appears that Anerberger occupies a house in the Second ward, owned by McKeown, but gave notice that he intended giving it up. Anerberger alleges this information was conveyed to McKeown by Mrs. Anerberger when she paid the rent, which so aggravated McKeown that he threw her down with such violence as to cause serious injury. It is further alleged that she has been sick in bed ever since. Her sister, Barbara Lang, was in the house at the time, and was also roughly handled, according to her statement made in the information. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing next Saturday morning.

Knock Down.—John Snyder and Geo. Verner are butchers, doing business in the Pittburgh market. Yesterday they had a friendly meeting in a saloon in Diamond alley, but after leaving, the friendship suddenly ceased, and a quarrel resulted, during which Verner knocked his opponent down. This is the statement of Snyder, who caused a warrant to be issued yesterday, by Alderman McMasters, for the arrest of the alleged assailant.

Important.—The lecture season will open next month which will be an interesting fact for lecture goers, but not more so to ladies than the announcement of the opening a of new and carefully selected stock of goods at the fashionable dress goods and trimmings store of W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Market Street. Mr. Moorhead is determined to keep his stock up to a first class standard and is always successful for "when there's a will there's a way."

Clean Yards.—Nothing detracts more from the exterior appearance of a house than muddy, dirty walks leading to and around it. This annoyance can now be very easily obviated, and the walks made pleasant to look upon and durable, by the Boulevard Pavement, for which Messrs. McCowan & Co., No. 65 Ohio street, Allegheny, are the agents in this vicinity. Owners of property should give the Boulevard a trial.

For fashionable hair-dressing, plain or by curling, and a frizzle, for a luxurious shave or bath, and for skillful cupping and leeching, call at Williamson's elegant saloon at No. 190 Federal street Allegheny. F

Hecker's Farina forms a very agreeable light nutritive food, a superior article for puddings and jellies, and is highly recommended by physicians for invalids and children. Sold by all grocers. T

His estimate of parties is that the Northern Democrats represent what is left of the principle of self-government, or "White Man's Government," while the Conservative Republicans South represent all that is left of the principle in that section.

THE Duke of Genoa, the nephew of Victor Emmanuel, is once more talked about as a candidate for the Spanish throne. The little Prince Thomas is not yet quite sixteen, and he might be put to a worse use than that of Governor of the Spanish State. He is a handsome boy, amiable, and already possessed of a variety of accomplishments. He is a pretty good horseman, can dance, fence, row, hit the bull's eye, drink rum punch, and has enough blue blood in his veins even for foolishly pretentious Spain. His education is advanced, but not yet completed; and there is elasticity enough in him for the Spaniards to bend him into the most approved form of a modern King, if his guardians will consent to the trial.—Florence Letter.

Alice and Phœbe Cary.

Alice and Phœbe Cary have begun the Sunday evening receptions that, every winter, renders so attractive their little house in one of our pleasantest streets. It is a small nest of a place, just large enough for the two gracious maidens who have chosen to abjure the constant companionship of the superior sex. It possesses one feature rather unusual in New York houses—it has a hall running through the center, on one side of which is the drawing-room, and on the other the library. Both rooms are as cosy as they can be, wearing an air of gentle refinement and unobtrusive culture. Everything is so tastefully disposed that upon entering it is only the tout ensemble that is perceived. No glaring picture rushes at you from the wall. No flowry sofa confuses the vision with an absurd mixture of color. Soft-toned draperies and skillfully grouped artistic trifles at once melt the visitor with a delightful sympathetic rapport. A peculiarly striking object is an exquisit mosaic table, imported from Germany, and presented to the sisters by an appreciative friend.

Their more favored visitors are invited to come to tea, at which banquet Miss Phœbe's sparkling humor almost makes her friends forget the more material feast before them. Mr. Greeley's amiable countenance often beameth above their table at these Sunday evening teas. For many years he has been a devoted friend to the sisters. During the evening the literati of the city assemble, dropping in one by one in an informal way that is very charming. At the last reception Oliver Johnson's gray locks and strong face were visible in a corner, their owner discoursing amiably to a knot of attentive listeners. Under the gaslight sat Miss Phœbe, plump, laughing-eyed, piquant. She wears all sorts of willing cut bonnets and sashes and bracelets and beads, perfectly in accordance with her cheery style. There's nothing of the proverbial old maid about her—not a bit of it. Conversing with her is Lord Adare, son of the Earl of Dunraven, who is just now traveling here with his wife. He has a slight figure, an intellectual face, and a long tawny moustache. Lady Adare is Scotch, and consequently bright-eyed and bonny. She looks rather amused as Miss Phœbe energetically remarks that she wishes some other than Booth might become the high priest of the drama in America. At one side, Susan B. Anthony, in the inevitable scarlet crape shawl and spectacles, relates her recent experience in Cincinnati to a sympathetic hearer. Susan's nose takes an upward turn, and her eyes snap as she goes into detail. About the room roams the philosopher of the Tribune radiating smiles and common sense until he grows tired and takes his leave in his own characteristic manner—that is, he wanders vaguely away without saying good-bye to anybody. The conversation very often turns upon spiritualistic matters, the sisters being devoted Spiritualists of the higher type. While Miss Cary's accomplished nieces were here, music was one of the attractions of these gatherings, but they have long since borne all but its remembrance to happy homes of their own. Throughout this nest breathes the most exquisite culture, the sweetest purity, and a beautiful picture is the lives of the two singing-birds within.—Correspondence of Cincinnati Gazette.

Absence of Culture.

We preach the love of beauty in season and out of season, read and write expositions of the principals of taste and nauseam, by dint of preserverance maintain a certain amount of enthusiasm for accepted standards; and yet in what an atmosphere of ugliness do we live, and move, and have our being. Take by the way of example, the so-called well appointed house of an English family in comfortable circumstances. The drawing-room will differ in no essential degree from thousands of drawing-rooms. the upholstry will be unexceptionable as far as costliness goes, the decorations will be of a piece, with all the other houses in the same street and no individuality is expressed anywhere. If pictures adorn the wall they are of the popular kind. Such works of art as have been collected together represent the money rather than the tast expended upon them. Love of commonplace luxury and absence of discriminating choice pervade every nook and corner. The question naturally arises—is the enjoyment of so much display at all equal to the labor it often represents? Some of the most costy households in London, households that rival princely establishments in wealth and splendor, are maintained by dint of commercial undertaking of the most unremitting and often hazardous kind. As there are no bounds either to the conventional uses of wealth or the passion for display, the pursuit of fortune is persisted in till the very faculty of enjoying better things is gone. Yet nobody can deny that it is quite possible to lead a life perfectly consistent with good taste and refinement, and invested with enjoyments of a high order, on a comparatively moderate income, if people would only set about in the right way, avoiding mere rivalry of display and vain ostentation.

In the present time good taste is outraged a hundred times a day. There are our hospitalities, to begin with. What can be said in favor of the dinner parties which begin between eight and nine o'clock and last for two hours? Nothing can exceed the lavishness of the banquet, the savoir faire of the servants, the brilliance of illumination, the splendor of the ladies' toilet; and yet what a dreary ceremonial is the whole entertainment from beginning to end! Half the money expended on two or three quiet little gatherings of well-assorted people would be really productive of pleasure and profit; yet the host or hostess who follows this plan is looked upon as both eccentric and shabby. It is the same with other things. To cultivate the esthetics of common life is to wage war against all kinds of tyrannies and follies. A woman who should dress in the way best suited to her figure and complexion, regardless of the last edicts of Parsian milliners would only win approval from the artistic, and a country gentleman who prefers art to hunting and sport finds very little favor in the eyes of his neighbor. Yet we have too much of the sporting spirit and too little appreciation of music and painting. It is not so much the cultivation of taste as the application of it to every-day existence that teachers of esthetics should insist upon. Most of us know what vulgarity means, and would be horrified to have such a sin laid to our doors. Yet how patiently do we submit to the vulgerization of our toilets, our dwellings, our amusements, our literature, nay, even our charities! Is not the evening dress of our daughters the very reverse of refined? Is not the profuse upholstery with which we fill our houses vulgar? The real value of esthetics in common life must be measured by the sincerity with which they are practiced, not the enthusiasm with which they are professed. Might not preachers inculcate this maxim even on Sundays sometimes?—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Cost of a King.

They are beginning to discuss in Europe the question of the costliness of monarchies. Some statistics on this subject have been lately completed, which may possibly set people to thinking. His Holiness the Pope, who can look over the whole of his temporal dominions from the ball of St. Peter's, is the cheapest monarch of Europe, and costs only $200,000 per annum. Wurtemberg spends $220,000 on her august sovereign, Denmark $240,000, Norway and Sweden $260,000, Holland $500,000, and Portugal $665,000. These thrones are among the comparatively inexpensive establishments. Bavaria sets apart a round million for royalty. England provides for her Queen and royal family $2,350,000. Prussia maintains majesty at a cost of $2,400,000. Italy charges her people for the new monarchy the handsome sum of $3,200,000, and Austria suffers for the support of the Hapsburgs to the extent of four millions a year. These are among the moderate kingsfolk and imperial people. When we come to the Grand Turk, who wants many sequins to keep up his seraglios and harems, we find him tolerably "high-priced," $6,600,000 being Abdul Assiz's allowance. The Emperor of the French gets his $7,000,000 for managing the affairs of the empire. Lastly, the Czar, who is the most expensive monarch to keep up of all, has $8,500,000. Taken altogether, the sitters upon European thrones cost their subjects about forty millions of dollars a year for their mere personal expenses. Perhaps one of these days it may be thought that this enormous expenditure can be made to better advantage than in the empty show of royal and imperial state.

THERE is now on trial, before Judge Johnson, at Meadville, Pa., an important case, growing out of the lamented Angola railroad disaster last winter. It is the case of Caroline Steward vs. the Buffalo and Erie railroad company. Stephen W. Stewart, husband of the plaintiff, was killed in the terrible accident referred to. He was, at the time of his death, President of the First National Bank of Corry, and a gentleman universally respected. The action is brought by his widow to recover damages torm the company for causing his death. It is an interesting case, involving some fine law points, and its results will be watched with interest.

A SERIES of mishaps occurred lately at the funeral of a litile child at Houghton, Michigan. The horse attached to the hearse became frightened, and ran away while on the way to to the house to get the body, threw the driver off and under the wheel, which took off one of his ears. The horse was soon secured and the funeral services proceeded. Upon arriving at the cemetery it was found that the gate keys had been forgotten, and a gate had to be burst open. Then the bands to sustain the coffin were missing; and lastly, the coffin box was found to be too small, and no cords had been provided for lowering the whole into the grave.

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea. Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instanees, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays; 12 M. to 5 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, P

RIVER NEWS.

The metal marks indicate two feet four inches and falling. The only boats arriving at present, are the regular packets.

—W. H. Brown, a well known Ohio River pilot, is in San Francisco.

—The Mollie Ebert was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The Kate Putnam is off the dock, and will soon be in tip top condition for business.

—It is stated that one-half the steamboats running below the falls fail to comply with the law by providing yawls.

—Andy Granger, the wickedest steam boat clerk, has reformed, and gone to teach a Sunday school on White river.

—The towboat Sam Brown arrived at Louisville on Monday from St. Louis with a tow of ore, and Blue Lodge was expected to arrive on Wednesday.

—Capt. Dave Thomas and Mr. Thorn, who recently purchased the Enterprise, at New Orleans, place her in the New Orleans and Arkansas River trade.

—The Evansville Journal, of Monday, says: The work on Capt. Montgomery's new boat, now building here, is progressing fairly. The new Ada Lyon is rapidly approaching completion. She will be a beauty. Work on the Sam Orr, now on the dry dock, is being pushed forward with activity. She will soon be ready for business again.

—Capt. W. L. Hambleton is building the largest wharf-boat that ever floated on the waters of the Ohio or Mississippi. It is over 360 feet in length. The hog chains weigh over 6,000 lbs. The principal one is of 2½ inch iron, and is about 350 feet in length. The wharf-boat, when completed, will be towed to St. Louis and moored at the wharf of that city. The building of this monster boat on the Mound City ways fully demonstrates that they possess capacity for the largest vessels that navigate our Southern waters. There is always a good water at the foot of the ways, and the machinery and appliances for taking boats from the river are unequaled.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on application.

We have a full supply of the above Bonds on hand and for sale, and we take pleasure in recommending them as a very reliable and perfectly safe investment.

SECURITY AND COMFORT for the traveling community.

J. B. HARRIS

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and

MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

GOLD closed yesterday at 1.30¼.

WE deplore the result in Huntingdon, where we lose two Representatives and most of the local ticket. The effect of the Republican dissensions is likely to be felt unpleasantly hereafter.

THE proposed fusion, of the too-long separated wings of Virginia Republicanism, upon the Senatorial question, now promises the most auspicious results for the future of the Old Dominion, in political honor and material prosperity.

THERE are later advices from Dr. LIVINGSTONE, assuring the world of the safety of the most daring, and, we hope, the most successful, of African explorers. These advices include a letter dated in July, '68, from the Doctor himself, with the subsequent accounts received, through traders from the interior, at Zanzibar.

EIGHTY-THREE districts of Allegheny county give GEARY 15,153 votes; PACKER 11,105; GEARY's majority, 4,048. Twenty-two districts yet remain to be heard from. These we estimate will add about one thousand more to the majority, making it in round numbers 5,000. Judge WILLIAMS' majority will hardly exceed six thousand. The indications are that Mr. MCGEE will have less than eight hundred majority over Mr. DICKEY, the Temperance candidate.

MR. PACKER'S friends have been sadly disappointed by the returns from the anthracite counties. He loses 345 in Schuylkill, and 1,128 in Luzerne, gaining only 47 votes in Carbon, his family's county, 99 in Lycoming and 128 in Lehigh—a net loss to the Pride of the Valley of about 1,200 votes. Taken altogether, this result must have been more of an unpleasant damper to him than the enforced bath which, it was said, his friends and neighbors gave him some years ago. That story may have been a myth, but Tuesday's hard fact was a reality which even he could not dodge.

THE VICTORY IN OHIO COMPLETE.

Later reports give 10,000 majority for HAYES and the Republican State ticket, and we also have both branches of the Legislature by one majority in the Senate and three in the house. This would secure Ohio for the XVth Article, and in effect dispel any remaining doubts of the final incorporation itno the Constitution of the American doctrine of the equality as well as the liberty of all the citizens of the Republic.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Doubts are expressed of the election, as first reported of Watt, to the Senate in the 1st Philadelphia district. The official canvass should have settled that question yesterday. Without him, the Republicans will have 3 majority in the Senate.

We have lost two Representatives by an unhappy schism in Huntingdon and one in Franklin, but gain two in Philadelphia. This gives a majority of 20 in the House.

GEARY'S MAJORITY, 3,782!

We append a full list of the reported losses and gains at the recent election. The official returns cannot possibly alter the general result:

Democratic Gains.—Allegheny, 3,957; Armstrong, 28; Beaver, 165; Bedford, 6; Berks, 292; Blair, 158; Bradford, 249; Bucks, 133; Butler, 31; Cambria, 162; Cameron, 46; Carbon, 57; Chester, 42; Clearfield, 187; Columbia, 19; Crawford, 136; Cumberland, 218; Dauphin, 255; Delaware, 252; Erie, 671; Elk, 54; Franklin, 243; Fulton, 29; Huntingdon, 75; Indiana, 646; Jefferson, 27; Juniata, 4; Lancaster, 1,243, Lawrence, 175; Lebanon, 9, Lehigh, 33; Lycoming, 149; McKean, 24; Mifflin, 60; Monroe, 462; Montgomery, 238; Northampton, 251; Northumberland, 48; Snyder, 72; Somerset, 266; Sullivan, 15; Susquehanna, 105; Tioga, 359; Union, 132, Venango, 170; Warren, 508; Washington, 173; Westmoreland, 266; Wyoming, 84. Total, 49 counties, 13,064 Democratic gains.

Republican Gains.—Adams, 42; Centre 16; Clarion, 48; Clinton, 270; Fayette, 275; Greene, 52; Luzerne, 128; Mercer, 34; Montour, 14; Perry, 6; Philadelphia, 4,175; Pike, 381; Potter, 7; Schuylkill, 345, Wayne, 183; York, 153. Total, 16 counties, 6,029 Republican gains.

Later returns increase the above Democratic gains as follows: Armstrong, 125; Bradford, 500; Butler, 200; Centre, 2; Clearfield, 168; Cumberland, 50; Fayette, 50; Franklin, 100; Huntingdon, 400; Lehigh, 95; McKean, 25; Mercer, 130; Montour, 10; Northumberland, 150; Susquehanna, 200; Venango, 200; Wayne, 14—an aggregate increase of the Democratic gains of 2,419, making a total of 15,483.

And we do better than the above as follows: Bedford, 50; Bucks, 400; Cambria, 50; Carbon, 10; Delaware, 300; Elk, 100; Greene, 600; Indiana, 90; Juniata, 35; Lancaster, 246; Luzerne, 1,000, Lycoming, 50; Monroe, 16; Montgomery, 200; Philadelphia, 50; Westmoreland, 150—an aggregate Republican improvement of 3,503. To this add Forrest, now reported at 60 for Geary, a gain of 56, and this total foots up 3,559 better, to be added to the 6,029 above. We then have 9,588 for all Republican gains.

The net Democratic gains are 5,895; the Republican majority in October, '68, was 9,677; the net Republican majority in '69 is 3,872, with all the counties heard from.

A MISTAKE AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

It is yet too early to form a reliable opinion upon the general expediency of the change of the municipal and township elections, from the Spring to the Autumn. That expense has been thereby saved to the local treasuries is clear enough, as well as that one half of the time, heretofore required for the discharge of their electoral duties, has been saved to the citizens. But it is decidedly to be doubted whether the broader interests of the people have been promoted, by the inevitable confusion resulting from the mixture of State and local questions, of political and personal considerations, at the same polls, The entire vote of the day cannot fail to hinge in a large degree upon the operation of the narrowest and most mischievous elements. This was, on Tuesday, the universal experience throughout the State. The struggles of local and personal interests certainly ensured a general attendance at the polls; but there are more or less citizens in every precinct who feel more interest in their favorite candidates for ward or township office, than in the success or defeat of the nominee of their party for Governor or Supreme Judge.

The Republican State and County tickets have everywhere suffered from this confusion. Votes for GEARY and WILLIAMS have been, in hundreds of cases in our own county, traded by candidates and their friends running for some trifling ward office. We hear the same report from other counties. In Beaver, the Republicans lose their sheriff, a brave soldier and good citizen, and have a deminished majority for the State ticket from this cause. Lancaster (city) has secured a Republican Mayor in the same way, by a traffic which increased the majority for Packer from 124 to 249. Our exchanges from all the larger municipalities of the State, tell the same story. We feel quite safe in the estimate that GEARY's majority in the State has been diminished by thousands from this cause alone. As far as heard from, the opposition have adhered to their straight tickets, from Governor to Constable, profiting in every case by the personal selfishness of Republican candidates.

Upon merely partisen grounds, we would not insist upon the abandonment of the new, system, which worked for us so much harm on Tuesday. But it is no answer to our comments, to say that Republicans are more free to trade away this or that nominee for an important place, because he was personally distasteful to them: an angel of light at the top of the ticket, personally unknown to the voters, would be freely traded away to secure the success of some two-penny constable or councilman. We do not regard it as for the higher interests of the Commonwealth that these paltry elements should be brought in, to imperil the desirable results of an important general election. It is decidedly better that the broad and vital issues involved in every State canvass should be decided on their own merits, wholly removed from any embarrassing local considerations.

This subject requires, and we think it will receive, Legislative consideration at the next session.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If the facts are correctly stated to us, as we recapitulate them below,—and we are free to say for ourselves that we credit their entire accuracy—one of the first duties now incumbent upon Governor GEARY, perhaps, in justice to the people, his first duty of all, is the prompt and absolute removal of the Attorney General, BREWSTER, from an office in which his further continuance seems to be plainly incompatible with the financial interests and the of the Commonwealth.

It is our duty to present, to the Governor and to the people, the following statement of the alleged facts in the premises:

Some years ago, the Pennsylvania Legislature granted a charter of incorporation to a financial company, styled the "Credit Mobilier." The scheme of this corporation was very closely modelled after the French institution of the same name, and, like its foreign prototype, contemplated financial operations upon a scale of magnitude not before known to the business world. The proposed direction of these operations was in the advance of large credits to banking. railway and other enterprises, in which much capital would be required, the considera- for the advances usually including, among others, a speculative interest in the profits of the special enterprise to which financial aid was thus extended.

The Credit Mobilier of Pennsylvania has, it is supposed, proved highly profitable to its managers and shareholders. The most familiar, as well as the most remunerative, of its undertakings, has been, according to the common belief, in connection with the Union Pacific Railway. Indeed, it is the received public impression, and probably a correct one, that the leading interests in both corporations are identtcal and that the vast profits of the railway enterprise have been absorbed by its managers under the cloak of the other financial concern.

The Credit Mobilier is a Pennsylvania corporation, and has its principal office at Philadelphia. Its charter was first obtained by DUFF GREEN. It was afterwards supplemented, and the company passed under the control of Dr. Durant and other New York operators. The concern is and has always been taxable in this Commonwealth. For years, it paid its taxes, to the annual profit of the Treasury, but for several years past it has been delinquent. Investigations by our financial officers show that a very large sum is due in this way to the State—a sum so large that the Credit Mobilier has agreed upon a basis of settlement, in case a legal liability of any sort really exists. Upon this basis, the Commonwealth claims the payment of a half million of dollars from the company, and the company admits that this sum is due, if anything be due at all.

Suits have been instituted by the State in the Dauphin Common Pleas for the collection of this large sum. The company contests the claims, but has entered good bail to abide the result of the litigation. These suits, it is the official duty of Attorney General Brewster to prosecute faithfully. We need not add that it is equally his official duty to take heed, in all particulars, that the interests of his clients, the people of Pennsylvania, should not be prejudiced by his own deliberate acts.

But a stockholder in the Credit Mobilier, who is also concerned in the Union Pacific Railway, has brought suit in a court of this Commonwealth against the former concern for, as he alleges, an unfair distribution of the profits of their connection. Attorney General BREWSTER appears as one of his counsel, and a large sum is demanded of the C. M. by way of compromise. So far, he acts in the proper line of his professional duty.

We wish that this were all of the story. But we regret to say that it is not. As counsel for this private client, the Attorney General has taken out, it is said, in his official capacity, a writ of quo warranto, to test the legality of the charter of the Credit Mobilier as a State institution. If the charter be annulled under that writ, the Commonwealth loses, at one blow, its claim for the half million of delinquent taxes, for no taxes can be assessed upon a corporation which shall be found to have no legal existence here.

The interests of the State, to so large a source, are thus indirectly, but none the less fatally, imperiled in a private litigation, to which the State is no party of record, and where its highest law officer is seen to be prosecuting, with his well known ability and zeal, a case in which the success of his client is certain to be vastly detrimental to the State Treasury. Our tax-payers are not in the humor to submit to this adroit raid under the direction of one of their own public servants. Nor are the financial officers of the State disposed to acquiesce silently in the Attorney General's scheme. Other counsel have therefore been employed to interplead in that suit, for the protection of the Commonwealth, and in opposition to Mr. Brewster's strategy. The State is to be protected, so far as they can do it, against its Attorney General's assault upon the Treasury. The provision may result in the public protection from any pecuniary loss, through the defection of the sworn law-officer of the people, but it will only render still more flagrant the scandal which he is seen to bring upon the State and upon his office, by such an infidelity to his official trust.

If the facts be thus correctly stated, the Attorney General has perverted his official prerogative, and tramples upon his official obligations, in the interests of a personal client. He thus converts his office, created and supposed to be executed in the interests of the Commonwealth, into an engine for the promotion of a private litigation, the success of which would strip the State Treasury of its claim, now believed to be a valid one for a half million of money.

An official impropriety of so grave a character as charged, must not be suffered to pass without a sharp investigation and immediate correction. If these facts be as stated, we demand, in the name of the whole people, the removal of Mr. Brewster, without delay, from an office which the public interests forbid that he should, occupy one hour after his complicity in this transaction shall be found to be as charged. We make no imputations upon the personal integrity of Mr. Brewster. But we can make no allowances for what cannot but be regarded as seriously an official misconduct.

With this statement, and with this demand predicated upon it, the Governor is responsible to the people of the Commonwealth for his action in the premises. We have no doubt that he will do his whole duty therein promptly, and to the popular satisfaction.

MINOR TOPICS.

THE HUMBOLDT MONUMENT Association is now only awaiting information from Professor Blaeser, of Berlin, concerning the bust of the philosopher which he is to execute, before it will be altogether ready to proceed with the work. The recent celebration, while not realizing the golden expectations based upon it, turned out better than has been currently reported, In addition to the funds subscribed, there are some five hundred dollars, the result of the concert and Volksfest, and there is ample money in the treasury completely to execute the design first proposed for the sturcture. There are reasonable hopes, however, of a considerable addition to the present fund, in which case two handsome and appropriate bas reliefs in white marble, will be inserted in the sides of the pedestal. We have been requested to make this statement because some persons have been circulating the report that the festival had eaten up the subscriptions; and it is due to the contributors to know how the matter really stands.

A VERY horrible book could be written upon the curious ideas and vagaries of suicides. Self-murder has increased very alarmingly all over the world during the past fifty years. While the majority of cases were brought about by common-place drownings, shootings or poisonings, there have still been a large variety of truly fantastic and hideous conceptions realized in the most tragic way. The growing belief that insanity necessarily precedes self-murder, seems to be mainly owing to these dismal eccentricities. One of the most singular of these recently occurred in France, where a man attempted to crucify himself and actually succeeded in nailing both feet and one hand to the wood, and in piercing through his other hand with a nail. In this state the unfortunate being was discovered, and his intentions, for the time, frustrated.

IT IS ANNOUNCED in several of the Eastern papers that Miss Emily Schaumberg, long renowned among American beauties, is about to make her debut upon the dramatic stage. Those who have been fortunate enough to see her wonderful impersonations at the little private theatre on Seventeenth street, in Philadelphia, will not be surprised that so brilliant a light can no longer be hidden from the world. As a tragedienne or as a comedienne, she has probably no equal upon the stage of the world. Ristori is her rival in tragedy, but the Philadelphian stands supreme in comedy. We take this, our first opportuninity, to present our sincere estimate of the expected debutante.

AN earnest desire exists among many of our musical people to have another opportunity of hearing the renowned Mendelsohn Quintette Club of Boston. Owing to various untoward circumstances, many people were unable to attend their concerts here last winter. We have heard it hinted indeed, that the members of the Club departed with no kindly feelings toward a city which seemed so slenderly to appreciate their efforts. We hope this is not so. We unerstand that the winter campaign of the Quintette will extend to several of the western cities and we hope that it may find a few evenings to spend in Pittsburgh, en route.

DARK brown hair is la mode in the Capital of Fashion now, Chignons of the hue of an October chestnut command the most curious of high prices. Blonde so long triumphant, now lies prostrate at the feet of her dark browned rival. Collar and handkerchief-boxes come from Paris adorned with voluptous Cleopatra's flaunted their tiny braids. The figurantes and chambermaids of the English and French theatres need no longer to purchase golden tresses before they rise upon the New York horizon as first class stars of a hundred evenings Blonde est mort; vive la Brune,

The Thrifty Swiss.

A correspondent of the London Times writes from Switzerland of some investigations concerning the condition of the peasantry. A Swiss hotel keeper on the Righi gave him the following information:

I asked him of his own parish, and he told me that such things as pecuniary relief for aged or distressed paupers was a thing unknown. Relief in kind consisting of milk, food or clothing, from a charitible society, was the only form of public out-door asisstance. He showed me last year's balance sheet, containing the account of money that had passed through his hands as public officer for the past year; and it was one that for its smallness might fill the hearts of any English Board of Guardians with envy and admiration.

He admitted to me that the young people when they were first married were frequently "not worth so much as a teaspoon between them," to use his own expression; and yet it was rare, very rare, that they ever had occasion to invoke parish assistance in their old age.

Wishing to pursue the subject further, I procured from him an order to visit the Union House itself. It is in the midst of the large important parish of Gersua, which contains, among other things, two important silk factories, besides a very considerable rural population. And yet the only inmates whom I saw here were one aged hero who had fought at Waterloo, and a few chubby orphans, under the care of two kind, bright-looking "sisters."

—A New York Herald special from Bombay, dated October 11, says that Mr. Kirke has received a letter from Dr. Livingston, dated on the 8th of July, 1868, in which the Doctor informs him that he believes he has discovered the source of the river Nile, at a point situated between ten and twelve degrees south. Dr. Livingston was in good health at the time of writing to Mr. Kirk. Intelligence of a still later date to hand, from Zanzibar, states that the trade caravan had arrived there, and reported that Livingston had reached Ujije, on the road to the coast, in safety.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Election Here—Doubts and Uncertainty—Enthusiasm Over the Result in the City—Scene at the Union League.

PHILADELPHIA, October 13, 1869.

The election of yesterday was probably the most orderly that has taken place in this city for many years. This important day, when the electors of the State of Pennsylvania are expected to visit the polls and deposit their ballots, and by this means pronounce upon the principles and the candidates of opposite parties, has hitherto been characterized by a spirit of partizan venom and rowdyism, which, were these exhibitions not received with forbearance and toleration by those against whom they were directed, would long ago have degraded an election into nothing more than a riotous and sanguinary conflict of the fiercest passions. Respectable persons would be, either from timidity or self respect, deterred from voting, and offices of trust and honor would speedily fall into the hands of the friends of elegant roman loafers, who live no one knows how, but are always to be seen hanging around the respectable men of their political faith. It is to the Registry Law that this amended state of affairs is principally indebted. It enabled the citizens of this city to give a fair and open expression of opinion through the ballot box. It enabled the intelligence and respectability of the city to express their disapprobation of the present disgraceful municipal administration. To the Registry Law and dissatisfaction with the sample they have had of Democratic rule, we must attribute the handsome gain which Philadelphia has given to the Republican party.

The Democrats, with their customary strategic skill, about four o'clock yesterafternoon, in order to produce, if possible, a stampede of the Republicans who had not voted, employed several wagons, and on either side had strips of canvass stretched and upon these the words "The Democratic City Ticket 3,500 ahead." In order to make this falsehood more conspicuous and to attract attention, a large bell was placed in the wagon, and as the vehicle moved along the streets the bell, manipulated by two boys, kept up a deafening clangor. This demonstration was variously greeted on the streets, either by cheers or groans, according to the diversity of political faith. It was certain, however, that very few put any faith in such statements.

Towards sunset the anxiety and impatience of the people was intense. At all the hotels large crowds assembled to talk over matters, to prognosticate upon the result and occasionally to snap up a bet. The Democrats were particularly noisy and, judging from their declamations and the amount of spirits periodically laid in, it would have been presumed that they had made a complete sweep. The Republicans were unaccountably depressed in manner as if anticipating disaster. There was evidently up to that time no reason whatever for either of these opposite feelings. Later in the evening the crowd began to resort to the prominent centres for the collection of the returns. The Union League had made every preparation for the announcement of the result to the public. Large white surfaces of linen spread upon frames and facing to the front and up and down the street, were erected over the entrance to the building. Behind these frames were lanterns. The result was painted in small letters upon a plate of glass about four inches square. By means of a light and a magnifying glass the writing was thrown upon the linen surface, which was properly illuminated, the size of the letters now being about a foot in height. Such were the preparations made for those without.

The League being the resort of nearly three thousand members, it was necessary, in order that the crowd be not to great for business, that some arrangement be made for the convenience of the telegraph wires, return keepers and the other necessary force. On this occasion the entire second story of the building was shut off from access from below. About fifty persons were provided with passes and allowed on the second floor. The remainder were kept below. As soon as any returns were received a duplicate sheet was made out and sent below and the result was at once announced by the magic lantern.

By eight o'clock the scene in front of the League House was enthusiastic almost beyond control. The entire width of Broad st., and from Walnut to Chestnut was a compact surface of upturned faces. As each return was presented, showing the enormous gain in the city, the dense mass set up a terrific cheer after cheer. It was said by those familiar with similar gatherings on former occasions that the assemblage of last night was never surpassed. During the entire evening, thousands came and went away, scarcely being able to get within seeing distance anywhere. In the course of the evening the Philadelphia Invincibles and several other clubs, with bands, marched down Broad street and passed the League House. The crowd pressed back, allowing a narrow passage through and then surged together once more like the waves of the sea. After eleven o'clock a rain springing up, most of the crowd separated. Several hundred, however, thronged the steps and pavements in front of the building until after mid-night.

The returns from the city of Philadelphia were highly gratifyifig and far exceeded auything that was anticipated. The loss in Allegheny was entirely unaccountable, and was a sort of damper on the great gains in Philadelphia. The rural districts also exhibited a peculiar shifting around, and it was hard to analize the cause of such a result.

The Democratic increase in Berks, and particularly in the city of Reading, was owing to a division in the Republican ranks. These divisions grew ont of the matter of appointments against which there is the most determined opposition. It will be necessary either to make some change, or the Republican force wilt grow rapidly less and probably practically disappear.

The Democratic headquarters in this city made no demonstration over the election. The members of the committee adjourned to some quiet, retired spot, and there awaited their fate, receiving but few dispatches. These people were greatly disgusted at the manner in which Philadelphia had treated them, particularly after, as they imagined, promising so much in their own favor. Governor Geary and John Covode were both at the League rooms until the latest moment.

The talk to-day, is that Packer invested fifty thousand dollars through his friends on the election. He appointed three intimate and responsible gentlemen to handle the funds. K.

Election Fight—Man Killed in a Street Fight.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

Whisky and Democracy triumphant! They carried the election yesterday in this borough by a majority of fifty. Last night the streets were hideous with the howls and oaths of the unterrified. A drunken row occurred about nine o'clock, in which stones were hurled furiously. One of these struck a man by the name of Arnold and killed him on the spot. This man was an innocent victim—he was taking no part in the fray. He leaves five orphan children. It is not certainly known who threw the stone. A colored man is in jail on suspicion. This morning an old fellow standing in the door of the Review office, pulled a flask of whisky from his pocket, and, holding it up, shouted across the street to one of the chief engineers of yesterday's operations, "Dave, this looks nat'ral yit." Yes, that flask, and others like it, did the business.

County going Democratic.

The Material Wealth of Great Britain a Little Over That of New York State.

The marvelous prosperity of the United States is very strikingly shown in a return of the assessed valuation of the real and personal propersy of the several counties of the State of New York, which has been furnished by the State Assessor to the New York Herald, and published in that paper on the 10th of September. Taking the dollar to be worth three shillings of our money, which is about its currency value, that valuation amounts to the enormous sum of £279,018,115 10s. sterling. The population of the State of New York was in 1865 3,831,777, Dividing the sum above given by this latter figure, we find that the taxable wealth of the State equals £72 16s. 4d. for every individual in the population. The amount of property and profits assessed to income tax in England, Scotland and Wales for the year ending the 31st of March, 1862, according to the "Statesman's Year Book" for 1869, amounted to £301,380,730, or in round numbers to be but £22 000,000 more than that of the State of New York at present.—London Star.

A NEW YORK dispatch says: At the Erie Railway meeting on the 12th inst., the old Board of Directors was re-elected. Fisk and Gould remain in their present offices, and according to the law passed by the Legislature last winter they can not be removed for five yeas.

The Commercial Advertiser publishes a long editorial to show that the publishers of the Evening Post were in the recent gold ring with Fisk and others. The Advertiser intimates that Henderson is the guilty party, and calls attention to his rapid accumulation of a fortune in the last fifteen years.

Indications are that the proposition of Lockwood & Co., to settle for fifty cents on the dollar, one-fifth in ten days and the balance in six months and one year, will be accepted. The house does not agree to pay the other fifty cents, but intimates that it will some time in the future. A majority of the creditors have acceded to the proposition, and the balance will probably do so. It is understood similar terms have been proposed to the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern direrectors for their funds in Lockwood's hands

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and effielent treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system, Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

THE FALL AND ITS DANGERS.

Animal as well as vegetable life is powerfully affected by the great atmospheric change that takes place in the Fall. But for the flowers, the foliage and herbs of the field there is no help. Their time has come and die they must. It is otherwise with man. For him the means of reinvigoration have been provided by skill and science. To recruit his exhausted energies and fortify himself against the disorders generated by the sudden depression of temperature and the unwholesome exhalations of Autumn, let him tone his nervous system, invigorate his digestion and give edge to his appetite with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. He may then face the morbid influences of the season fearlessly. The chilling night dews and heavy morning mists will have no power so make him shiver and burn, to affect his liver, to disorder his stomach or his bowels, to rack his joints with rheumatism, or to render any latent element of disease in his system active and dangerous. To the sufferer from general debility, whether constitutional or arising from other causes,—this potent vegetable specific is earnestly recommended. And let it be remembered that physical weakness opens the way to all maladies. Vigor is the chief defence of the human structure against all causes of disease, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be truly pronounced the safest and surest of all invigorants. It is the most genial of all vegetable tonics, and is admirably adapted to the wants and weaknesses of the more delicate sex, as well as to the ailments men.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, October, 14 1869.

Business continues quiet, but as the election is over an improvement is expected. If the Pennsylvania Railroad Company would give Pittsburgh a chance to ship east, and place her on an equal footing with other points west of here, business would be much better than it is; as matters stand now, our merchants are, in a manner, shut off from any communication with the seaboard, and, as a consequence, are obliged to limit their business to Pittsburgh and vicinity, as there is no margin to sell or make consignments to Philadelphia, Baltimore or New York.

APPLES—Are coming in more freely, and the market is easier, though prices are unchanged, ranging from $1,50@3,00 per bbl.

ASHES—Steady but unchanged—4@4¼ for Soda, and 9 for Pearls.

BUTTER—Prime to choice Roll Butter is in steady demand, with regular sales at 35@37.

CHESTNUTS—Cannot be quoted above $8,00@8,50 per bushel, and it is doubtful whether a round lot would command these quotations.

CRANBERRIES — Unchanged—ranging from $11,00@12,00 per bbl, as to quality.

CHEESE—Is steady with regular jobbing sales at 15@18 cts—the outside figure for prime New York Goshen.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands 28½@29 for round lots, and 30@31 in a retail way.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples are quoted at 9@10 cts. per pound, and Peaches at 10 cts. for bright quarters, and 14c for bright halves.

EGGS—Firmer and we can report sales at 23@24.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is a shade better in the west but dull and unchanged here. We continue to quote good to choice Western Winter Wheat brands at $6,50@6,75.

GRAIN—There is a moderate inquiry for wheat at $1,25 for prime red, and $1,30 for white. Oats quiet and unchanged—demand, if anything, rather better, we continue to quote at 48@49 on track, and 50@53 in store. Rye will sell at $1 for Western, and $1,05 for prime Pennsylvania and Ohio. Corn is in light supply and steady, with sales at $1 on wharf and track, and $1,05@1,07 in store. Sales of good to strictly prime barley at $1,25@1,30.

HAY—Sales from country wagons at $15@23—mostly at $15@20.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LARD OIL—Extra No. 1, at $1,43@1,45, and No. 2, at $1,05@1,08.

ONIONS—Sales at $2,50@3,00 per bbl, the outside figure for choice.

PROVISIONS—Market steady with a continued fair jobbing demand but prices unchanged. We now quote sholders at 17@17¼; Clear Ribbed Sides, 20¼; Clear do, 21; Ribbed, 20; plain Sugar Cured Hams, 23. Lard, in tirces, 20; in half bbls, 20½ in kegs 21. Mess Pork, $33,50.

POTATOES—Sales of Peach Blows at 50 cents per bushel. Jersey sweets are still quoted at $5@5,25 per bbl.

SEEDS—The arrivals of flaxseed continue very light and it is held generally at $2,45@2,50. Small sales of timothy seed at $4,25@4,50. No movement in clover seed.

SALT—Is firmer, with sales of car load lots at $1,85 per bbl.

STRAW—Sold in Allegheny market at $12 per ton.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, October, 14, 1869.

Business in this market to-day has been fairly active. A firm feeling has prevailed all day, although prices are not quotably higher than those ruling yesterday, except for refined for spot or October deliveries, which has advanced ¼c per gallon—October having sold yesterday at 32½, while to-day it realized 32¾. The crude oil market is also strong in feeling, but the sales do not aggregate so much as yesterday's transactions, while prices are not quotably different.

CRUDE.

In the crude oil market a moderate number of transactions have been reported at yesterday's ruling prices, viz: 2,000 bbls seller 60 days, at 15c; 1,000 seller November, at 15; 1,000 seller all year, at 14¾. We quote spot or seller October, at 15, and buyers option all year, at 15¼.

REFINED.

Sale 2,000 bbls on spot at 32¾; 500 bbls each, October to December, at 32½; 1,000 bbls B. O. all year, at 33. For spot or October oil, 32¾ was bid this afternoon.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

MENTAL PHILOSOPHY; embracing the three departments of the Intellect, Sensibilities and Will. By Thomas C. Upham, D. D. In two volumes. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Dr. Upham very clearly demonstrated his ability, when this work was first published, to discuss the subject of "Mental Philosophy." After careful revision, and the addition of new matter, the work is reproduced in an improved form. In these days of book making, especially text books, much stress is placed upon the intelligent arrangement of its parts, so that students may readily comprehend the drift of the author. Here we have combined the excellencies of simplicity and naturalness of style, and harmony in the arrangement of the various topics. For the general student the work possesses attractive features, as well as for a text book in our schools. It is divided into three departments, the Intellect, Sensibilities, and Will, and students of all classes contemplating professional life will find examples of inductive reasoning. The author represents the work as being Electic in its character, and is not exclusively in the interest of any of the great Philosophical Schools, though it presents the claims of all. We can heartily commend the work as one worthy of being introduced into educational institutions, and to enrich any person's library. It is beautifully printed, and reflects credit on the publishers.

SCRIPTURE MANUAL, or Religious Exercises for the Morning and Evening of each month.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL MANUAL for each Sabbath in the year. By N. C. Brooks, LL. D., President of the Baltimore Female College. Published by Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, Philadelphia. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

The first named is designed for academies, schools, and private families. The exercises are so arranged as to present the great fundamental truths of Christianity. Each day's exercises contains a selection of hymns, followed with quotations from Scripture and prayer. This book is calculated to do good and interest Bible readers. The Sabbath School Manual is arranged much upon the same plan as the former. The form of questions and answers, between teachers and scholars, is a commendable feature. Dr. Brooks is well qualified to get up works of this kind, for his practical knowledge of the wants of students.

ONE POOR GIRL: The Story of Thousands. By Wirt Sikes. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

It is very easy to guess the character of this work, as it portrays a class of persons and scenes that stain society and are cancerous spots in large cities. In the deliniation of such subjects, the author perhaps is justified in the use of the means he has employed to secure information and write intelligently, and yet there are objections to presenting such phases of human society. The story itself contains thrilling episodes, which cannot fail to interest and touch our better natures. The chapters headed, "From Heysinger's Journal," may be read separately from the story, and with interest, too.

CAROLINA, THE HOTEL-KEEPER'S DAUGHTER. By Mrs. M. E. Berry. Published by the American Tract Society, Boston, For sale by S. R. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

In this volume we have illustrated moral courage and a firm determination to do right. The story is one of thrilling interest and presents the central character, Carolina, in a beautiful light. Besides the development of moral power, the book is a valuable adjunct to advance the temperance cause. It is an excellent book for the family circle, and is also suitable for the Sunday School library, especially Mission Schools.

THE STORY OF CYRIL RIVERS, and what he learned at College. Published by the American Tract Society, Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

Lessons are inculcated in this book that are of value to young men starting out to receive a collegiate education. It presents the various phases of college life, the shoals and pits that hedge his pathway, and by which many a promising young man has injured his character—frequently irretrievably. The story of Cyril Rivers ought to do good, and doubtless will accomplish the end in view by the writer, namely, to illustrate the dangers of college life apart from the grace of God.

GEORGE ELIOT'S NOVELS. The Mill on the Floss. Felix Holt. Library Edition. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

On receipt of the first volume of this edition of George Eliot's works, we expressed our astonishment that the series, so elegantly gotten up, could be furnished at the marvelously low price of seventy-five cents per volume. The work is printed on white paper, clear text, robed in handsome green morroco cloth, and tastily illustrated. The lovers of this charming writer will have a fine opportunity to enrich their library with this capital edition. The time for criticising the merits of these novels is past, and the meed of praise has been awarded to the author. These well known publishers announce that they have paid a large sum of gold for the privilege of publishing the works of the author.

THE HISTORY OF PENDENNIS. By W. M. Thackeray. Published by Harper & Bros., New York.

This neat pamphlet edition of Thackeray's works is furnished at the low price of 75 cents: It is elegantly printed and profusely illustrated. No one need be told of the merits of "Pendennis." It is a rare piece of satirical writing.

The Snob of the Period.

A N. Y., letter says: It is a fact which seems to be quite well established, that Fisk, Jr., made several millions of dollars during those days of panic. If one wants to know how he squanders a $100,000 or so per day it is only necessary to pay a visit to the Erie building on Twenty-third street, the gorgeous marble Opera House. Without the presence of Messrs. Fisk and Jay Gould it is an astounding pile of extravagance. With their attractions added it is too magnificent for any thing. One ascends wide staircases monogramed with E.R. in brass (appropriate), perambulates over plush mats gorgeously ornamented with scarlet, lettered "Erie," sits in brown Russia leather chairs decked with more monograms on the back—gilt this time. A bewildering confusion of ground glass and brilliant velvet carpets glitters about, a soft sleepy light falls through blue and gilt curtains upon the heads, bald and otherwise, of an army of clerks. Elegantly frescoed ceilings stimulate a heaven of nymphs, locomotives and very pink dolphins. Tnree stories are filled with offices (there is an office for every thing and every body connected with Erie down to the porter), and all are fitted up in the same extravagant style, with rosewood and ebony woodwork, velvet carpets and monograms. Through an elaborately carved door we step from the ante-room into the private offices. The center one belongs to Mr. Fisk, and like all the rest, is magnificent in velvet, rosewood, chocolate and gilt wall paper, library tables, glass and more monograms. Mr. Fisk's rosy face, graceful nose, and blonde mustache, are occasionally bending over his desk, which is planted upon a raised dais, elegantly carpeted. Beside his throne is a rosewood cylinder, at the top of which are arranged a dozen or more ivory knobs, connecting with bells in nearly every office in the building. At one side is the Secretary's room, wherein repose gorgeous paintings of the ferry boats belonging to the company, and a highly colored production, representing Mr. Fisk, Mr. Gould and President Grant, mounted upon a wicked looking locomotive, and careering along at full speed. They are holding on for dear life—pudgy little Fisk managing his steed with an inspired expression in his very small eyes. Here he sits; a slender little man, with black hair and whiskers, just touched with gray, sharp eyes, and a nervous, restless expression. In one corner is a little rosewood telegraph office, rejoicing in three wires, one of which ends in Fisk's banking office on Broad street, one in Washington, and one in Jersey City. A minature machine constantly receives and registers the price of stocks, brought by a special wire from the Exchange.

In the basement is a printing office at which all the Opera House programmes, steamboat bills, etc., are printed. Above are several bath rooms, and a barber shop expensively fitted up and monogramed, for the use of the clerks of the establishment. In the third story is a kitchen, delicately neat in all its appliances, down to the French cook in his white cap and apron and monograms. Here are cooked the meals which are served in the private restaurant below to Fisk, Gould, and their attaches. All the clerks eat in the building, but pay for their meals as at a public restaurant. Mr. Fisk has a beautiful little monogramed dining room of his own; which is never shown to anybody. It is here that he entertains his fair theatrical friends when their labors are over in the theater below. Thoroughly stocked wine and fruit cellars, and any number of dumb and the other kind of waiters, with more monograms, complete the culinary arrangements of this railway building. Mounting through the center is a Herring safe, seven stories high, and defended by gratings, doors, and monograms without number. A back staircase leads to Mr. Fisks private box in the theater, and over all floats the gorgeouness of uncounted monograms, which are pet whims of Mr. Fisk's. This gentleman is not very amiable to inquiring visitors. He stands pugnaciously with his nose in the air and his hands in his pockets, and disposed to be decidedly snubby. Especially when asked how much this monogramatic and velvety magnificence cost, and where the money came from.

THE landowners "keep down the Irish" in Ireland by a very simple process—that of raising the rent of the land upon every available excuse. The daughter of a very thrifty farmer who paid the largest rent in the parish, bought a cheap silk dress, and the lady of the land, while out riding, saw her with it on, and asked the footman if he knew who she was. "Yes, your ladyship," replies the lackey, "she's Peter McCarthy's daughter, who lives two miles from ——." Her ladyship said nothing, but when she arrived at —— House she sent for the agent of her lord's estates, and inquired what rent Peter McCarthy, of ——, was paying. The attentive agent promptly replied £2 10s. per acre, the very highest, as the land is pretty good. "Increase it to £3," responded her ladyship. "But it is not worth it," responded the agent. "It must be when he can afford to put a silk dress upon his daughter," replied her ladyship. And the rent was raised, to the ruin of the farmer.

THE CHINESE COOLIES.—The particulars of the plan for the introduction of Coolie laborers into Louisiana have recently been made public. The employers must pay the laborers monthly wages, amounting to $8 gold or $10 currency. They must also advance $150 for the payment of the passage money and two months' wages of each Coolie. The question has been raised whether the planters will be able to rsise $3,000 for every twenty hands, at the same time running the risk of the Coolie not working. It is, however, believed that the funds will be forthcoming, and that a large number of Coolies will soon be at work.

ARE SWEET POTATOES FRUIT OR GRAIN?—The novel question whether sweet potatoes are fruit or grain came up in the internal revenue office at Washington the other day. The question came up from Virginia, where these potatoes are being used to manufacture whiskey. If they are regarded as fruit, the product of distillation by small factors would be exempt. If held to be grain, the full tax would be due. The Commissioner decided that for the purpose of distilation the vegetable was grain.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care.) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 245 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

Mayor Drum is absent from the city.

Office Hess, formerly of the Allegheny police force, will hereafter be found at the office of Alderman Mullen, Fourth ward, Allegheny.

Petty Theft.—A boy entered the saloon of Felix Henley, Penn street, yesterday, and robbed the till of five dollars in cash, and escaped detection.

Committed. — Yesterday Alderman Herron committed John Brady to answer a charge of robbery, preferred against him by Sam'l E. Lull.

Burglary.—A tobacco store on the corner of Wood and Water streets, was burglarized yesterday morning, the thieves securing about fifty dollars worth of cigars.

A Mistake.—In the list of returns from the First ward there was a slight mistake in the name of J. M. Gazzam, Esq. That gentleman having 355 votes instead of 255, as was mentioned in yesterday morning's paper.

Pleasant.—A large party of his fellow-citizens paid a complimentary congratulatory visit to the residence of D. N. White, Esq., on Wednesday evening, to assert their pleasure and satisfaction derived from his election to the Legislature.

A Failure.—The Nicolson pavement on Penn street seems to have been a failure That portion of it between Wayne street and the railroad crossing, which was laid about three years ago as an experiment, is being taken up and replaced with the old style cobble stone.

Coroner's Inquest.—Yesterday morning Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body of John Vonmoz, who fell from the roof of the Diamond House, Allegheny, Wednesday evening. A verdict in accordance with the facts as we gave them was rendered.

Dislocation. — Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock a little boy named Cornelious employed about the Methodist Episcopal block, Smithfield street, while playing with a swing in the cellar, fell and dislocated his wrist. He received medical attention.

Alleged Disorderly House.—Alderman Shore yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of Kate Jackson and her husband for maintaining a disorderly house, information having been bronght against them by Mollie Davis. The parties are all colored and reside in the Eleventh ward.

Good House on Beech Street, Allegheny.—The special attention of buyers is invited to the sale, on Monday next, of that first rate dwelling No. 43 Beech street. Pleasant external appearance, convenient internal arrangements, pleasant surroundings and everything desirable. See advertisement on fifth page, by A. Leggate, Auctioneer.

The Election.—The election, with all its excitement, is rapidly passing from the minds of the people, but the important fact is still as true as ever that nowhere in the city can a better assortment of trunks, valises, traveling satchels, and articles in that line, be seen than at Liebler's popular emporium, No. 104 Wood street. All in need of such goods should give him an early call.

Slight Fire.—A slight fire occurred at the corner of Webster avenue and Arthur street about five oclock yesterday morning. A shed in Moore's brick yard caught fire, but was extinguished before any serious injury was done. An alarm was given from box 56, and the engines in the second district responded, but did not go into service. The damage was trifling.

Bills were also filed against the following parties, who it was averred are infringing upon certain patents held by Mr. Roberts and connected with his torpedo: George West, Frederick Crocker, Levi Collum, James Whorry, Central Petroleum Company, Ocean Petroleum Company, Samuel Klincorderline, Edward Vaugh, Wiselz Chambers, John Brooks, Samuel A. Wood, Dixon and Carman.

Billiardism.

Mr. William Dobbs, champion billiardist of Western Pennsylvania, has been installed Manager of Mr. George H. Bennett's palatial billiard rooms, No. 68 Smithfield street. The success of the well managed place has been truly marvellous, but not any greater than is warranted by the high character and liberal management of the proprietor. Mr. Peter McCabe, an universal favorite and as clever a gentlemau as ever handled a glass, presides with grace and dignity over the wine and liquor department, and has always a cheerful greeting for his friends and patrons. Lovers of the ball and cue should not fail to pay this establishment a visit.

A Light Subject.

The resolution introduced in Allegheny Councils last evening, looking toward a further expenditure of gas in keeping the public lamps lighted from sunset to daybreak, is certainly very opportune and should not be lightly passed by. This want of light has been a chronic subject of complaint in Allegheny for some time past. and undoubtedly needs attention. It is no light matter to attempt pedestrianating through thoroughfares shrouded in darkest darkness, and about every square be brought to a sudden halt, sometimes by a misplaced boulder, which generally leaves its impression upon humanity's pedals, and again by huge dry goods boxes, or "ye gentle savage" of painted wood, acting as a tobacco advertisement during the day and an obstruction of the night, or again, most cruel grief, to be pounced upon by exultant sentinels of justice who rejoice in having secured in the timid, cautious individual groping suspiciously along, the identical nocturnal rambler whose operations have made him an object of peculiar interest. And all this for want of a little light. "Ye locals," whose perambulations of a necessity extend through some of these unlighted thoroughfares in the "wee sma hours ayont the twal," whose pedals are a constant reminder of painful contact with sidewalk excrescences, whose optics have been sadly strained by futile attempts to pierce the thick darkness ahead and all around, and whose experiences with zealous policemen are of the most vivid and affecting character, especially appreciate this great need, and are ready, Sancho Panza like, to shower their choicest blessings upon the public benefactor who comes to their relief with more light. More light then, gentlemen, more light, and the fervent benediction of each and all of your belated constituents, and particularly the lasting inexpressible gratitude of "ye locals" shall be your reward hereafter,

THE COURTS.

United States District and Circuit Courts —Judge McCandless.

THURSDAY, October 14.—In the case of the steamer Bayard vs. Coal Valley and Arab, in admiralty, the Court delivers the following opinion:

"This is a case of collision of steamers navigating the Ohio river. The Coal Valley and tho Arab, with a tow of eleven flats and barges, were ascending, when, at night, near Grave Creek, below Wheeling, they sighted the steamboat Bayard descending the river. They gave the authorized signals, indicating to the Bayard to take the starboard, or Virginia shore, which were properly and affirmatively answered by the Bayard. From this point of time there is a mass of conflicting and contradictory testimony, sufficient to unsettle the nerves of any Admiralty Judge, but from which I deduce this conclusion, that the lights required by law were properly placed both upon the steamers and the tow; that both the ascending and descending boats designed to avoid a collision, and that it was caused by the defective steering apparatus of the Bayard.

In any phase of the case it is not without doubt, and must therefor be decided upon the principle of the "Grace Girdler," 7 Wallace 196, that where, in case of collision, with loss, there is reasonable doubt as to which party is to blame, the loss must be sustained by the one upon which it has fallen. The libel was dismissed with costs.

In the United States Circuit Court bills in equity, asking that the parties be restrained from infringing on the Roberts Torpedo, were filled, and preliminary injunctions granted against the following persons:

Messrs. Dick, Fisk & Co,, Ralph Barker, Benj. Slocum, James M. Kirtland, R C. Bevenedge, W. L. Holbrook, Daniel P. Hatch, D. W. Longwell, A. P. Gotham. A. H. Simpson, Simpson & Bachus, E. C. Beardsley, G. Shamburg, Piaget & Kinnier, H. H. Thomas, Carlton A Nims, Producers Torpedo Company, The latter respondents acknowledge the infringement. Messrs. Bakewell and Christy, of this city, and Geo. Hardling, Esq., of Philidelphia, appeared on behalf of complainants, and Messrs. S. A. & W. S. Purviance and B. F. Lucas, of this city, and Judge Kelly, of New York. for respondents.

THURSDAY, October 14.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. Michael Gill, indicted for the murder of Andrew Tierney, was taken up.

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

On the evening of the 28th of August last the accused and the deceased and two other persons were in Snyder's saloon, on Penn street, near the "Point," playing a game of "forty-fives" at cards, when a dispute arose between the defendant and the deceased about the game, Gill accused Tierney with cheating, when the latter called him a liar. Gill returned the lie, when Tierney struck him. Mr. Snyder, the proprietor, then, it appears, put Tierney out, and shortly afterward Gill followed, when the fight was renewed on the sidewalk in front of the saloon, during which Tierney was cut several times with a knife, once on the neck and twice in the abdomen, and from the effects of the one in the abdomen Tierney died on the evening of the 1st of September.

The Commonwealth was represented by District Attorney Pearson and Capt. W. B. Cook, who opened the case to the jury, and R. J. Powers, Esq., and John Coyle and R. M. Gibson, Esqs., represented the defendant.

A number of witnesses were examined on behalf of the Commonwealth, but there was nothing elicited further than what transpired before the Coroner's inquest, which was published in full in the GAZETTE.

Mr. Coyle opened the case for the defendant, and after examining a number of witnesses as to the facts in the case, several were called as to character, after which defendant's counsel asked leave to withdraw their plea of not guilty, which was granted by the Court, and a plea of guilty of voluntary manslaughter was entered. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

Mr. Hall, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the report of the Committee, accompanying which was a resolution authorizing the Controller to certify a warrant for the payment of the grading and paving of Robinson street, which had been assessed against the West Pennsylvania Railroad Company, as the Court had decided that the assessment could not be collected from the railroad company.

The report was received and the resolution read three times and passed.

REPORT OF THE STREET COMMITTEE.

In relation to paving Evans alley between Nixon and Washington avenue without curb or sidewalk the Committee report adversely.

Relative to changing the name of Carroll street. An ordinance reported changing it to Ackley street.

Relative to the remonstrance against the construction of the Washington and Liberty streets sewer, the Committee deny the allegation of the protestants and give a number of facts in support of their position,

Relative to the opening of Fulton street the Committee report in favor of appointing viewors.

The Committee report adversely to the opening of Pasture Lane.

The opening of Buena Vista street was recommended instead of opening O'Hern street.

The report of the Committee was received and the ordinance and resolution in the same adopted.

REBECCA STREET.

Mr. Patterson presented the report of viewers on the opening of Rebecca street. The viewers report that the damages would amount to $85,000, and that they could not find any property upon which to assess the damages.

Mr. Long moved that the report lay on the table until next meeting. Adopted.

Mr. Phillips, a resolution instructing the Committee on Gas to have lamps erected on Ridge avenue, at the several entrances to the Park. Referred to the Committee on Gas.

Mr. Long asked for information how it was that certain streets and alleys in the city were without gas, and how citizens could obtain gas on streets where there was no pipe laid.

Mr. McBrier stated that under section 15, in the city Code. referring to the act incorporating the Allegheny Gas Company, he thought the Gas Company could be compelled to extend their pipes wherever the City Councils should direct.

Mr. Long then submitted a resolution authorizing the Committee on Gas to inquire into and ascertain the powers of the city relative to requiring the Gas Company to lay gas pipe wherever the City Councils may direct, for the purpose of lighting streets and common grounds.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Long moved a reconsideration of the resolution appropriating Sherman avenue as a wagon yard for market wagons.

Mr. Hall held that the city had no authority or right, either in law or equity, to appropriate the street for such a purpose.

The motion to reconsider was lost.

Mr. Hall desired that his protest against the passage of a resolution appropriating a street or avenue for such purposes.

The protest was put in writing and entered upon the minutes.

In the above business Common Council concurred.

Council adjourned.

Duncan Dallas, Clerk of Markets	$ 924.70
R. T. White, Second Ward Scales	345.54
G. B. McNulty, Diamond Scales	319.97
Total	$1,589.97

Report received and filed.

THE POOR FARM UP AGAIN.

Mr. McNeill called up the report of the Committee on Poor Farm laid over at last meeting.

The report was received.

The consideration of the resolution attached to the report, relative to confirming the purchase of the Boyd Farm, was then taken up. Mr. McNeill called for the yeas and nays on the passage of the resolution, with the following result: Yeas, Hastings, Krebs, Megraw, McNeill, Ober, Reineman, Seidle—total, 7. Nays, Comley, Hanna, Kopp, Price, Thompson, Warner and President Slack—total, 7.

So the resolution was lost.

SEWER BONDS CONSIDERED.

Mr. Hanna called up the ordinance relative to Sewer Bonds which was adopted in Select Council, but laid over at a preceding meeting in Common Council.

SPICY PERSONALITIES.

The discussion on the ordinance was participated in principally by Messrs. Hanna and McNeill, during which McNeill took occasion to refer to a previous vote of Mr. Hanna in relation to the Poor Farm question.

Mr. Hanna called the gentleman to order.

Mr. McNeill proceeded, but was again interrupted by Mr. Hanna, who, by permission, asked if the gentleman was a paid attorney for the Messrs. Boyd. [Laughter.]

Mr. McNeill, in an excited manner, declared that any individual capable of making such an insulting insinuation was not competent to sit in Council. He again reviewed Mr. Hanna's action in the matter, and characterized it as an attempt to keep the city's money in a "little" bank, instead of using it for the benefit of the city.

Mr. Megraw interrupted the debate by asking for a second reading of the ordinance.

Mr. McNeill moved to adjourn, and called for the yeas and nays on the motion, which was finally lost by a vote of ten nays to four yeas.

THE ORDINANCE AMENDED AND PASSED.

The ordinance was then read, when Mr. Hastings moved to amend by taking out the word "hereafter" in the ordinance, which was finally carried.

The ordinance was then considered as amended.

Mr. Megraw wished to know how much money would have to be provided for if the ordinance was passed.

Mr. Hanna, from the Street Committee, said he could not tell exactly. It would probably be less than $20,000. This was to pay for the sewers built under the present law in force. The refunding business had nothing to do with this matter.

Mr. Megraw said a great many people had objections to the present sewer law and thought it should be repealed.

The discussion here assumed a rambling character and occupied considerable time. The point at issue seemed to be that some desired the ordinance to be passed in order that money could be raised to pay for sewers that are already under contract. Others contended that the ordinance should go farther and make provision for the refunding of the amounts overpaid by parties for sewers under the old law.

Finally, the ordinance as amended was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. McNeil offered a resolution for the appointment of a Committee of Five, to revise the present sewerage law with a view to secure the district system with some amendments. Adopted,

NEW GAS POST.

Mr. Tate, from the Committee on Gas, presented a repert accompanied by the following resolution:

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the city of Allegheny, that the Superintendent of Water Works be and he is hereby authorized to have a lamp placed at the corner of Gray's alley and Lacock street.

Report received and resolution passed finally.

Mr. Tate, petition for water pipe on Benton alley from Monterey street to Pasture lane Second ward. Referred to Committee on Water.

Also, petition for the repaving of Pump alley from Benton to Barnett alley. Referred to the Committee on streets.

MORE LIGHT.

Mr. Warner offered a resolution instructing the Mayor to have the public lamps kept burning until half past six o'clock A. M., until the first of March.

Mr. Hanna gave an instance of the need of more light from his own experience, a few mornings since.

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Mr. Tate asked leave to record his vote on the resolution relative to the Poor Farm question.

The President stated that as it would change the result, permission could only be granted by unanimous consent.

Mr. Hanna objected to granting the privilege, and a vote was thus rendered unnecessary.

Mr, Price presented a remonstrance against the opening of Taylor avenue.

Referred to Committee on Streets.

In all business not otherwise noted S. C. concurred.

Presentment of the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury yesterday made the following presentment:

To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Allegheny:

The Grand Jury would respectfully present:

That they have carefully and with their best judgment discharged the duties for which they were summoned; they have passed upon all the bills laid before them, and have visited most of the State and county institutions, giving as much time to such matters as they could possibly spare after the consideration of the long criminal calendar which have the first claim upon their time and attention. The enlargement of the county jail, now in progress, renders it difficult, if not impossible, for the Warden to keep the building, crowded as it is, in such order as is desirable, and would be insisted upon, under other circumstances. The new cells are nearly all completed, and are built after the most approved modern plan; and, as a thorough and much-needed improvement in Court House comforts, we would recommend that the witness room adjoining the Grand Jury room should be more thoroughly heated.

THE WORK HOUSE.

The Work House is also unfinished, but is being rapidly pushed to completion. It promises to be a most useful institution. It will relieve the county prison of the incorrigibles who have heretofore spent most of their time in careless idleness and will compel them to labor for their own support, and there is much reason to hope that strict discipline and useful employment may effect much in reclaiming, those who may be utterly degraded.

THE COUNTY HOME.

The County Home for the sick and destitute is a well managed institution, and the increasing care and industry of its officers of every grade is manifested in all its departments.

WESTERN PENITENTIARY.

A brief visit to the Western Penitentiary enables us cheerfully to attest the interests of the State, and the permanent reformation of the convicts are earnestly subserved and sought after by the inspector and the subordinate officers of the institution. Improvements in prison discipline are constantly being suggested by the philanthropic and humane. Among them are the plan of shortening terms of imprisonment in a stated ratio, as a reward for continued good behaviour; also the occasional or partial congregating of the prisoners under certain conditions and for certain purposes. These projects, we think, should be tested and extended, as we are assured they will be of great benefit to the prisoners, and will tend to their permanent reformation.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

The Grand Jury throughout the progress of their labors, were painfully convinced that the excessive use of intoxicating liquors is almost always the inciting and immediate cause of crime, and the facilities for the gratification of the appetite for strong drink seems to have been increased, rather than diminished, under the present license law, which was intended to be much more stringent than that which it superceded.

We are constrained to say, when we look at the number of persons indicted for selling liquor on Sunday and for furnishing liquors to minors and to the habitually intemperate, that the granting of licenses has not been attended to with sufficient care. It is clear to us that many persons have been licensed to keep taverns and drinking houses who should never have been licened at all.

To deal with and to prevent violations of the license laws, too much dependence is or has been placed in the professional informers, or class of men, who, it is clearly manifest, are not in the least anxious to see those who violate the law promptly punished, their licence withdrawn, and their doors quickly and finally closed. If this class of agents, who pursue a doubtful calling for their own interests entirely, and not for the interest of the public, could be dispensed with altogether, and all their tricks and devices to entrap liquor sellers be given over, it would be better for the public morals. And if the city police, and ward, township and borough constables were as vigilant and as incorrupt as they should be, no other informers would be needed within their recspective beats or districts. They surely could keep watch upon the drinking saloons and learn the names of the constant customers, whether habitual drunkards, minors, or Sunday purchasers, and then by prompt action and trial to secure all the witnesses necessary to convict transgressors. As it is now, the license law is a dead letter, so far as cutting off the supply of intoxicating driks for minors or inebriates, on Sunday or any other time. Whether the plan pursued in some other cities of making a very high rate of license and thereby naturally reducing the number of drinking houses would mend matters is worthy of consideration. It is probable that the many penalties for the violation of the liquor laws are quite sufficient now, but of these penalties the smallest portion is legally levied and the informers and their witnesses get the lion's share. And in this liquor business, as well as returning frivolous informations, many of the Justices and Aldermen behave in a most reprehensible manner. They make returns which never should be made, and record complaints which should never encumber a docket. There certainly ought to be some enactment to restrain ignorant and greedy magistrates from promoting foolish law-suits, from plundering contentious snitors and from criminal connivance, when, as sometimes happen, timid liquor sellers are entrapped into a single violation of the liquor law.

THE ROADS.

We would call the attention of Your Honors, and the public, to the culpable neglect of many supervisors, road commissioners and contractors, for making roads and streets, in so conducting their work as to annoy the travelling public and to make all kinds of transportation on certain thoroughfares dangerous to vehicles, life and limb. Several complaints on such matters have been officially brought to our notice, and to our own knowledge other local nuisances of this sort now exist and have been endured for weeks and months. The renewal and repair of pavements and the grading and altering of roads and streets should be done with all possible dispatch and with as little inconvenience to daily travel as possible. For some years past contractors, supervisors and other officials having duties relating to highways do not seem to think that the public have any rights which they are bound to respect.

IMPRISONMENT FOR COSTS.

The practice of detaining prisoners in jail for long periods when no prosecutor appears or cannot be found, is often productive of great wrong and suffering. Imprisonment for the non-payment of costs is also a practice that should be carefully looked into. In some cases it seems to many oppressive. It too often happens that prosecutions are incited in the heat of passion, and the prosecutors repenting of their haste, decline to appear, and the accused may be confined for weeks before the case reaches the Grand Jury. And it is even more harsh, to send some simple minded prosecutor to jail for costs he cannot pay, when, perhaps he was urged by advisers or interested officers to bring a suit that could not be sustained.
